A MESSAGE FROM ED...

Hi Everyone,

Well crud! Summer is over and fall has set in. Leaves are coming down at their leisure making us wait to blow or rake them all away. For me personally, I have one tree that has completely dropped all of it's leaves (red maple). I have 2 other regular maple trees with those stupid helicopters and they have barely dropped anything yet. I also have one nice oak tree that is about half done so far. C'mon, lets git 'er done already!!! :) Whew, I feel better now.

On a sad note, I am sure that most of you know we lost another member this past month. Dave Piper passed away. He always had a smile on his face and seemed to be up to mischief most of the time. He will be missed. Rest in peace, my friend, we'll take it from here.

- Next Club Meeting on Tuesday, November 6th at Clarette's. 5:30 for dinner, and the meeting will start no earlier than 6:45 and 23 seconds.
- You may notice that we have a new Hub editor. It's me!! Tomas. If you have anything to submit, contact me at tomdeccio@charter.net

CAR FACTS...

- The last car with a cassette player was the Ford Crown Vic in 2011.
- The names of all Lamborghini's cars are derived from the world of bullfighting. The Diablo and Murcielago are both the names of famous bulls, while the Estoque is the style of sword that Matadors use.
- The heaviest limousine weighs over 50,000 pounds. It has 3 lounges, a bar, and can carry up to 40 people.
- The word "car" is from the Latin carrum, which originally meant a "two-wheeled Celtic war chariot." The Latin is further derived from the Proto-Indo-European root *kers- "to run.
- A car is stolen in the United States every 45 seconds.
- The first cars didn't have a steering wheel. People had to steer them with a lever.
- A dashboard was initially a piece of wood attached to a horse drawn carriage to prevent mud from splattering up from the horses and onto the driver.
- The "Flatmobile" holds the record for the world's lowest street-legal car at just 19 inches high.
- The most often stolen car in the United States is the Honda Accord. Rounding out the top five are the Honda Civic, the Ford Pickup (full size), the Chevrolet Pickup (Full Size), and the Toyota Camry.
- Approximately 5 months of a person's life is spent waiting in a car at red lights.
- About 165,000 cars are produced each day, which is equivalent 60 million cars per year.
- Daniel Craig, as a reward for playing James Bond, can take any Aston Martin from the factory for the rest of his life.
- Lamborghini gave the Italian state the world's fastest police car in 2008. It had a video surveillance system, gun racks, a defibrillator, and an organ transplant cooler. They crashed it a year later.
- In 1668, Ferdinand Verbiest, a Flemish member of a Jesuit mission in China, constructed the first known automobile. It was just 2-feet long and steam powered.
- U.S. highway congestion costs over $160 billion a year, including wear and tear on vehicles, gas burned while idling, and lost productivity.
- More men than women die each year in car accidents, most likely because men typically drive more miles than women and are more likely to engage in riskier driving practices.
